INDIGENOUS YOUTH LEADERSHIP PROJECT (IYLP)

This initiative is funded by the Australian Government

The IYLP offers scholarships and leadership opportunities to young Indigenous Australians, with a focus on youth from remote and regional communities with funding support through the Department of Prime Minister and Cabinet.

In addition to helping Indigenous students achieve their educational aspirations, the IYLP supports the development of positive role models and leaders to inspire other Indigenous students.

- The Smith Family, in conjunction with Wilderness School, invites applications for 2023 boarding.
- Places are open to students entering Years 8-11 in 2023.
- Applications are sent directly to The Smith Family where they will be short-listed for further consideration.
- If successful in the next stage of the application process a face-to-face interview will be held at Wilderness School and with the IYLP Manager.
- Information, applications, criteria and other forms are available from The Smith Family from March, 2022.

For more information visit www.thesmithfamily.com.au/programs/aboriginal-and-torres-strait-islander/indigenous-youth-leadership/applications

Applications close Friday 27 May, 2022.
