BACKGROUND

Miss Joan Creswell was an old scholar of Wilderness School. She began school when she was almost 5 years old. Joan was a Prefect in 1947 and Head Prefect in 1948. Following her school years, Joan graduated from physiotherapy in 1951. She worked closely with children, including therapy for feet, hip and spinal problems as well as assisting children during the Polio epidemic. There are many people across the globe grateful to Joan for her commitment and knowledge. Miss Creswell was passionate about Wilderness School and the opportunities the school offers to all students.

PURPOSE

When she passed away in 2016, Joan Creswell bequeathed funds to Wilderness School for a scholarship in her name dedicated to a new student to complete their schooling for Years 10 - 12 at Wilderness School.
