

"The Wilderness School is very dear to me. I hand it over to you. Try to keep it simple, hard-working, friendly and with the right set of values. Pass this message as a torch to future Councils, headmistresses, teachers and especially to the girls; for it is the girls who make the school."

- Miss Mamie Brown

GIVING EVERY OPPORTUNITY THAT YOU HAD.

A Wilderness School education is a transformative experience.

What unites our old scholars is not that they shared a similar timeline at school, but that they shared a path of abundant opportunities.

Nurtured, challenged, inspired, supported and encouraged to shine as unique individuals, Wilderness girls leave our school feeling empowered by their education.

They are eager to make a difference, motivated to achieve and feel a keen sense of responsibility. In short, they have become good citizens and great women.

Underpinning many of these opportunities are the bequests generously made by old scholars. From strengthening educational programs to improving facilities, broadening scholarship offerings to attracting specialist staff, bequests contribute greatly to our school and its culture.

WE INVITE YOU TO SHARE YOUR OPPORTUNITIES AND JOIN OUR GREEN DOOR SOCIETY.

When you let us know that you will be making a bequest to Wilderness, you join friends and supporters of the School in our Green Door Society. As a member, you will receive a beautiful, yet discreet, Green Door pin signifying membership and acknowledging your support. You will also receive invitations to special events and activities throughout the year.

A bequest can support an area you are passionate about, such as the sciences or the arts or a sport, or be for general use. A bequest allows you to contribute to our school without impacting your lifestyle today and it can be modified at any time in response to a change in your circumstances.

Importantly for us, a bequest made today allows us to express our gratitude to you personally for your intended gift.

BEQUEST EXAMPLE

If you wish to include Wilderness School in your will, your solicitor may find the following wording helpful:
